OUR OPPORTUNITY:

The goal of the Internship program is to provide you with a real life glimpse into our full-time role of a Sales Professional and also to enable you to eventually complete the Tom James sales cycle process with a prospect from initial interaction through final delivery.
The primary areas of focus for our internships will be:

- No previous industry knowledge is required; just a desire to sell and succeed
- Prospect clients: utilize our prospecting platforms including Zoom Info & LinkedIn Sales Navigator to find and reach out to potential clients
- Direct/Indirect Referral Concepts: generate referrals through current and potential clients to create warmer leads
- Phone Skills & Dials: 50+ dials/week, with a goal to set around 5 appointments/week
- Access to Technology including a Chromebook, prospecting platforms, communication platforms, and CRM
- Independently develop clientele: build your clientele throughout the summer, with those prospected being returned to you, providing you return as a full-time hire.
- Field knowledge: follow your mentor as they go on appointments, measure clients, and prospect directly in the field. Work with your mentor to sell people whom you’ve prospected and set appointments with.

TRAINING:

Your first week is virtual, classroom training in the store that you were hired in. Additional training will continue on Tuesday and Thursdays throughout the remaining 7 weeks.
